The long and winding road
That leads to your door

Will never disappear
I've seen that road before

It always leads me here
Leads me
to your door

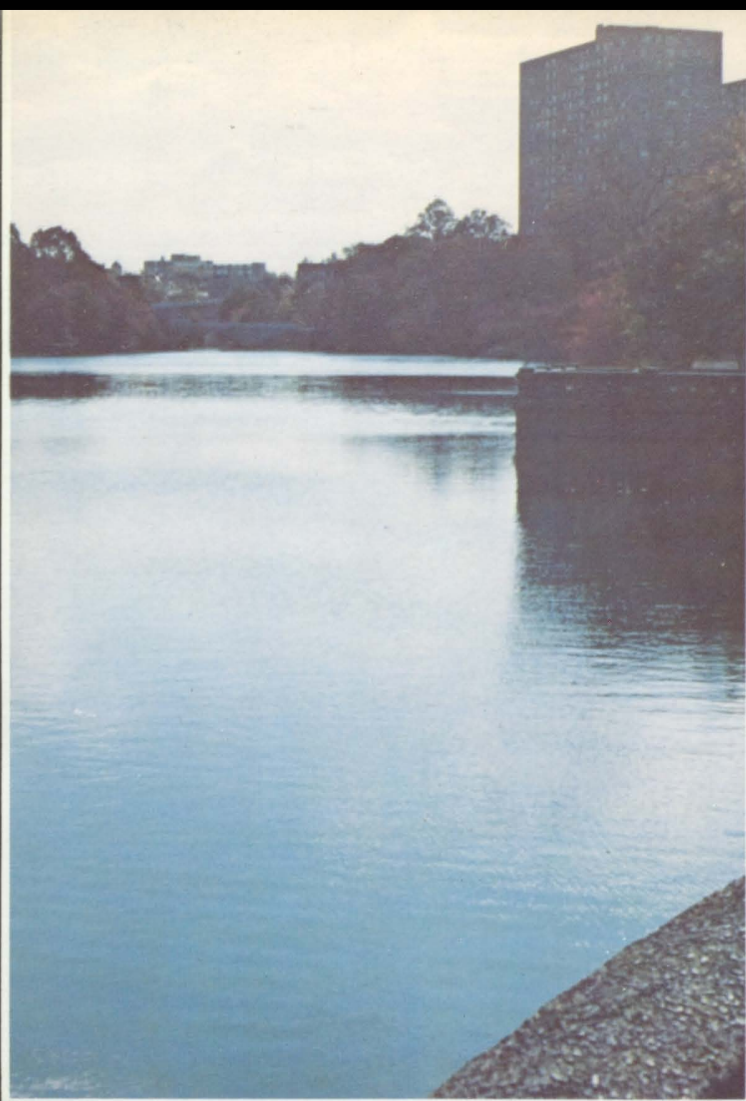

The wild and windy night

That the rain
washed away

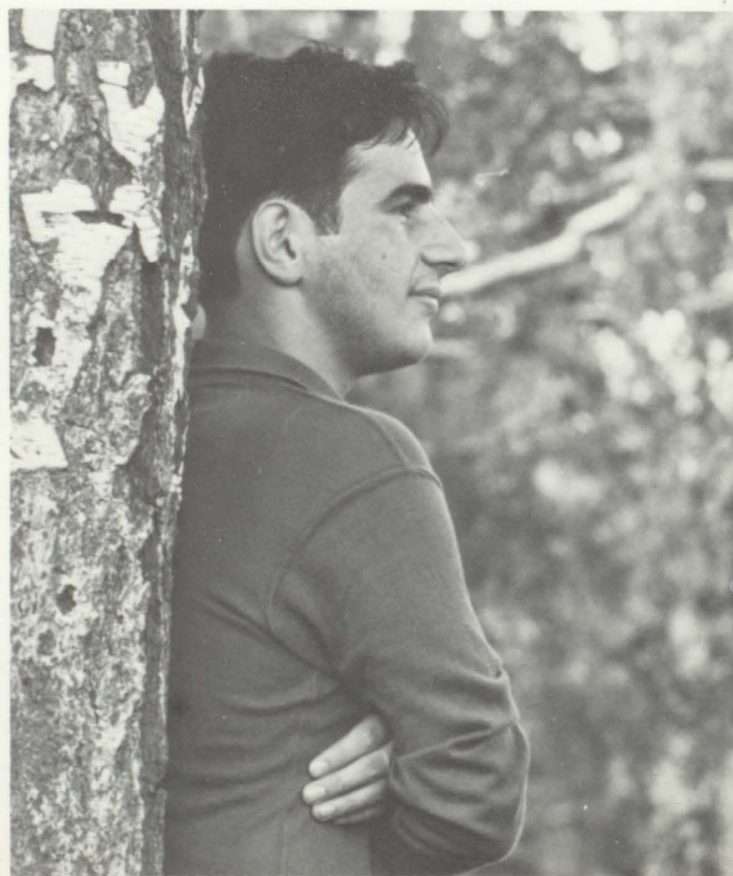

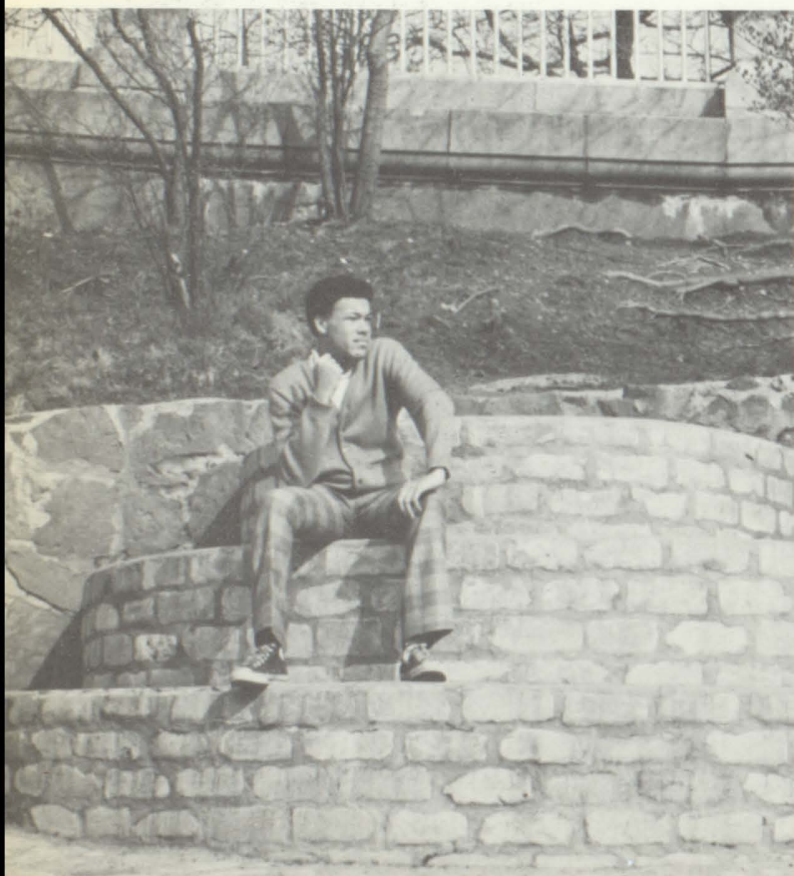

Has left a pool of tears
Cry'in for today

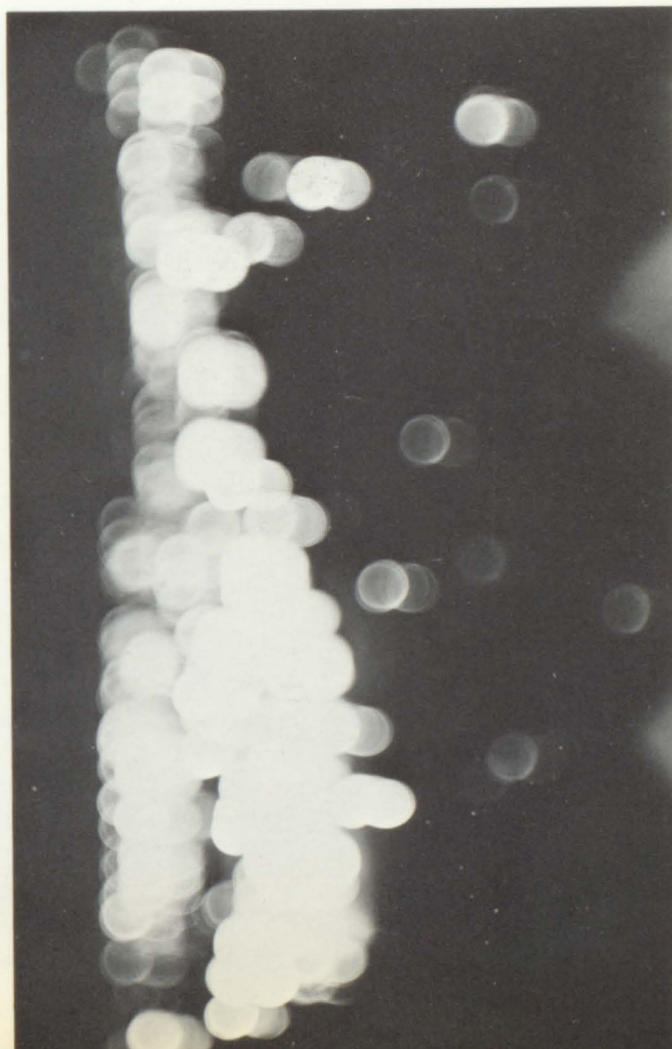

Why leave me standing here
Let me know the way

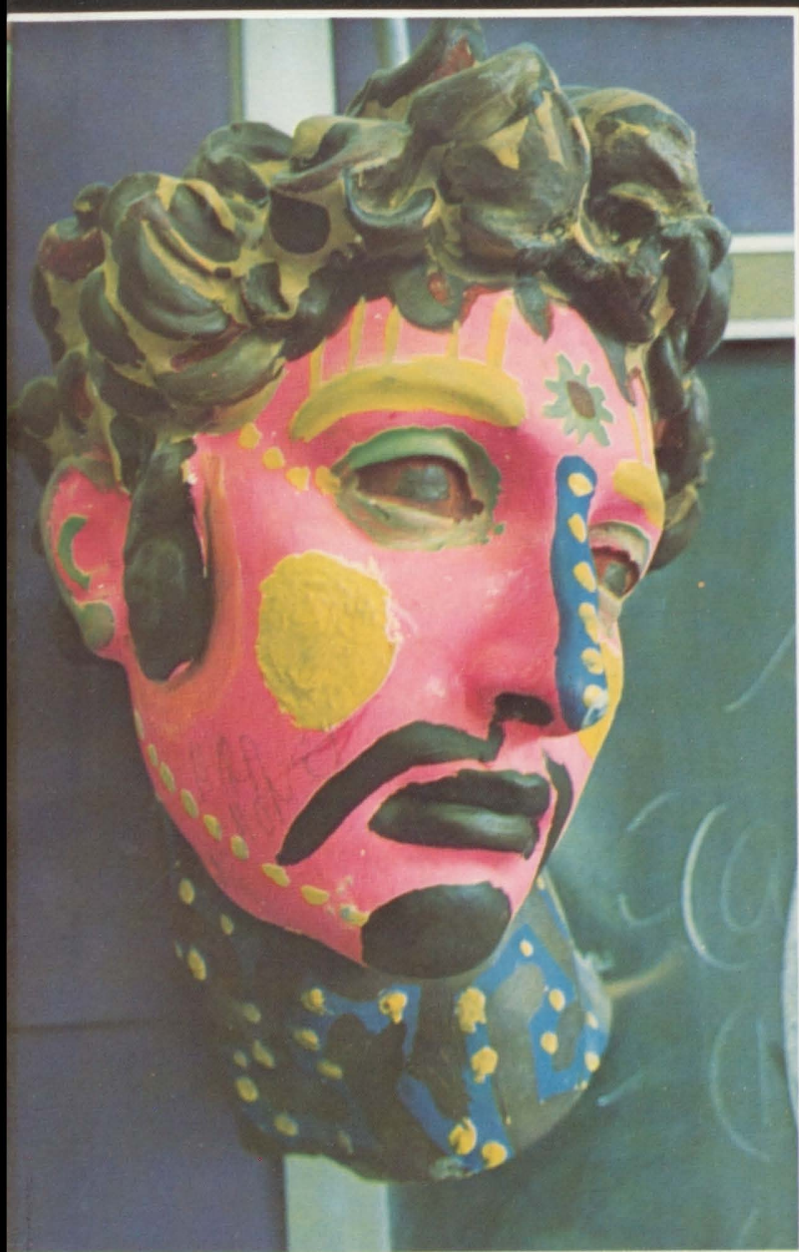

Many times I've been alone And many times I've cried

Many times you'll never know the many times I've tried Stare and lead me back to the long winding road

You left me standing here
a long, long time ago

Don't keep me
waiting here
lead me to your door

Best of Everything to the together Class of 1973

SAL DI GERLANDO — BOB LOWY

What is a First Love?

IT'S MEETING him and really liking him as a friend, but not like that.
IT'S INDECISION, but then going out with him and deciding you like him like that!
IT'S DOING lots of special things together: shows, movies, even bowling, because everything becomes special just being with him.
IT'S SEEING him every day, talking to him on the phone for hours every night, dreaming about him, and still not being with him enough.
IT'S BEING so nervous about meeting his mother that you fall down the stairs.
IT'S STARTING to think maybe you will spend your whole life with him.
IT'S WRITING notes to each other and sharing lockers and books.
IT'S NOT needing a diary anymore because you can tell him everything.
IT'S BEING ecstatically happy to be alive.
IT'S THINKING about him 25 hours a day, seven days a week, even in your dreams.
IT'S HAVING him tell you nothing's too good for you and he has you on a pedestal 20 feet high.
IT'S THE SUMMER when both of you go away, realizing you won't see each other again for ten weeks and being very upset, but he reassures you that you'll have a beautiful year together after the summer.
IT'S SAYING goodbye, tears streaming down your faces, while he holds you in his arms.
IT'S SENDING him a letter with a "love" card every day.
IT'S SEEING a green envelope in the mailbox and knowing it's from him.
IT'S GETTING a phone call from him, and all your friends being so happy for you.
IT'S THE MOST beautiful love letters in the world.
IT'S SLOWLY realizing he's changed, you're always the last to see it.
IT'S HOURS on the phone discussing what happened.
IT'S HOURS OF crying, not being able to accept the change.
IT'S TALKING to the mirror, wishing it were him.
IT'S HAVING all your dreams shattered.
IT'S HANGING on until you just can't anymore.
IT'S BREAKING up with both of you crying.
A FIRST LOVE is all of this and more, but after all the hurt subsides, you know you'll be thankful for the love you once shared.

by Helen and Sue Bottel

Let others cheer the winning man There's one I hold worth while Tis he who does the best he can Then loses with a smile.
Beaten he is, but not to stay
Down with the rank and file,
That man will win some other day,
Who loses with a smile.

Let no tomorrow mar thy rest with dreams of coming ill:
Thy maker is thy changeless friend,
His love surrounds thee still.

Ellen H. Gates

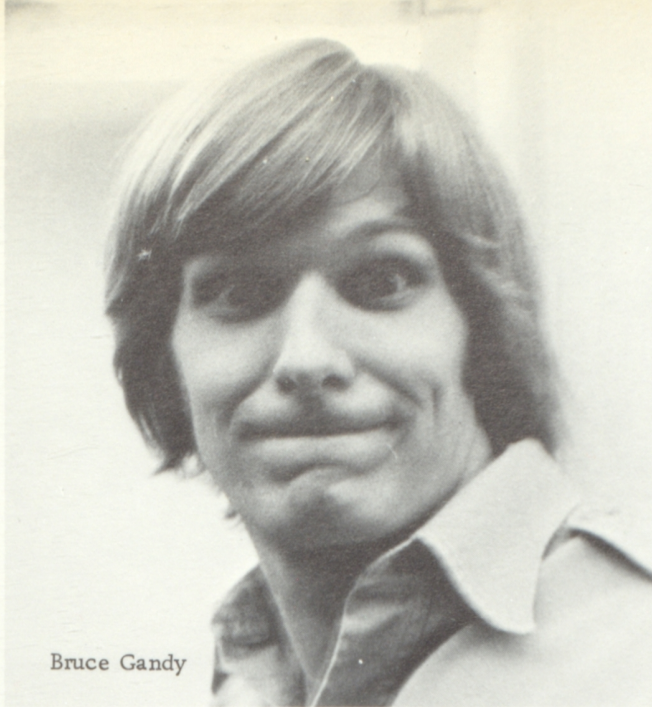

I remember almost two years ago
the first time I saw my father cry
I remember almost two years ago
he said my mother was about to die
I remember almost two years ago
for all I felt was fear
I remember almost two years ago
because to me, my mother was so dear
I remember almost two years ago
she knew she was slowly dying
I remember almost two years ago we had great hope of her surviving
I remember almost two years ago
she held me close and began to weep
I remember almost two years ago
I prayed God, her please let us keep
I remember almost two years ago in her chest I buried my head
I remember almost two years ago
I looked up and my mother was dead
I remember almost two years ago
the first time I saw my father cry
I remember almost two years ago
he said my mother was about to die.
